Pathways for Exceptional Children

At Pathways for Exceptional Children, we understand that children struggle to succeed and feel included. Using a children teaching children model, we empower children of all abilities ages 3-21 to discover their passions, develop their strengths, and build the skills, not only to achieve their greatest potential and independence, but most importantly, a sense of value and belonging.

For more information and program registration go to www.pathwayskids.org.

Inclusion

We help children of all abilities develop a sense of belonging and give them opportunities to find their own success.

Empower

We teach children to value who they are develop the resiliency to reach their dreams and potential.

Children Teaching Children

We help children discover their passions and encourage them to share them with other children.

Montville Gardens
